THE NYU SILVER EXPERIENCE
Renowned for its strong tradition of clinical excellence and dedication to social justice, the NYU Silver School of Social Work is paving the way in training students in integrated health, palliative and end-of-life care, and other innovative and emerging areas of social work practice. You will also have the opportunity to study around the world with NYU Silver programs in New York, Shanghai, and Latin America.

NYU Silver has been a pioneer in training 16,000 social work practitioners and leaders in every area of the field since its founding in 1960. The School offers a continuum of education—BS, MSW, post-master’s, DSW, and PhD programs—for the next generation of social workers.

Fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education
Diversity

A commitment to diversity is a governing philosophy reflected in every aspect of your educational experience here. We actively recruit across the country for students from diverse backgrounds, which is reflected in the profile of MSW students enrolled in fall 2015.

Once at NYU Silver, you can become involved in a range of student groups, such as the Students of Color Collective, Pride in Practice, Chinese Student Support Group, and the Latino Social Work Student Organization. The School also hosts the Social Justice and Diversity Grant Challenge, encouraging students to design programs that strengthen our diversity and social justice programmatic offerings.
