

The Albert Faculty Center is a “one-stop shop” for all your self-service needs for academic information. The Faculty Center home page is grouped into sections that will guide you through various services. When you have been associated to teach a class your roster with student names will be shown here.

When it is time to grade your students, you will use this same page to view and grade students.

The screenshot shows the NYUAlbert Faculty Center interface for user Stella J Grace. At the top, there are navigation links for 'PAQA85', 'Home', and 'Sign out'. Below the header, there are buttons for 'Faculty Center', 'my schedule', 'Search', and 'class roster'. A callout box points to the 'class roster' button with the text: 'Change the term using Change Term button'. Below this, there is a 'Faculty Center' section with a 'My Schedule' link. A 'change term' button is highlighted with a callout box that says: 'Click on the Class Roster link to view your roster'. Below the 'change term' button is a 'My Exam Schedule' link. Under 'Select display option:', there are radio buttons for 'Show All Classes' (selected) and 'Show Enrolled Classes Only'. Below this is an 'Icon Legend' section with icons for 'Class Roster', 'Grade Roster', and 'Learning Management'. The main content area is titled 'My Teaching Schedule > Spring 2011 > New York University' and contains a table with the following data:

Description

Evaluates, from the management point of view, marketing as a system for the satisfaction of human wants and a catalyst of business activity. Deals with the subject at all levels, from producer to consumer, and emphasizes the planning required for the efficient use of marketing tools in the development and expansion of markets. Concentrates on the principles, functions, and tools of marketing, including quantitative methods. Utilizes cases to develop a problem-solving ability in dealing with specific areas.
